

Physician writers throughout history

Poetry and Medicine: The case for humanism in science.

- Similar or dissimilar, complementary, synergistic?
- What can poetry do for health care providers and patients, and how?

Pectoriloquy (CHEST's monthly poetry feature)

- Review of the first 2 years
- Who's benefitting: the submitting poet, the reader, the Journal, the patient, the medical community?
- What gets accepted, what gets rejected, and why
- What constitutes an excellent poem?
